

The Bright Futures Fund

The Bright Futures Fund was set up in 2008 up by a husband and wife who wish to provide help to groups helping young people to engage in positive activities. The fund is specifically targeted at young people facing difficulty or disadvantage because they are not in employment, education or training; young people who have offended or are considered to be at risk of offending; young people affected by bereavement and young carers.

Recent Awards

Community Carts was awarded a grant of £1,500 towards confidence building fitness workshops to girls at risk of being excluded and with low in self-esteem and confidence.