

Sir David Arculus is the High Sheriff of Cambridgeshire

Sir David Arculus is the High Sheriff of Cambridgeshire. Sir David was installed at a service in Peterborough Cathedral in March 2016, taking over the role from the outgoing High Sheriff Captain Victor Lucas.

The Role of the High Sheriff and the High Sheriff's Award Scheme

A High Sheriff is appointed by Her Majesty at a meeting of the Privy Council, for one year. The Office of High Sheriff is over 1,000 years old and the key elements of the role are supporting those who administer law and order.

It is an apolitical role, undertaken on a voluntary basis, at no cost to the public purse and so is well suited to lending support and encouragement to charities, community groups and voluntary services.

The High Sheriff's Award Scheme was established in Cambridgeshire over 15 years ago to support this charitable work. It recognises achievement and awards grants to projects involving young people in positive activities which benefit the community. The Cambridgeshire High Sheriff's Award Scheme is managed by the Cambridgeshire Community Foundation.

16/17 Awards

As for the prior year, awards will be made in 16/17 to projects that are supporting and enabling young people to volunteer (take social action) in their community.

Grants of up to £750 will be offered and the groups wishing to apply need to submit a request by 1 August 2016.

Details of 15/16 awards are given below.
